Course Description

This course is a continuation of Fundamentals of Latin II. Students continue to study more advanced forms of Latin grammar and syntax, to acquire additional vocabulary and to read increasingly difficult Christian Latin texts.

Course Objectives

- To further develop competence in the Latin language;
- To read, understand, appreciate and make a personal response to passages from the Vulgate texts in Latin;
- To deepen understanding of the civilization within which Latin classical literature and the early Christian texts were produced;
- To develop a sensitive and analytical approach to language by seeing English in relation to a language of very different structure and by observing the influence of the ancient language on our own.

Course Assignments and Evaluation

Midterm Exam	20%
Tests (4)	20%
Hand-in Homework (4)	20%
Class participation	10%	every class
Final Exam (cumulative)	30%
Total	100%

Format of Exams (all tests are closed-book)

- i. Tests (about 10 min long) will be administered at the beginning of the class on the day that has a test scheduled. Each test will consist of vocabulary drills (all principle parts of verbs included) as well as translations and grammatical questions based on the most recent chapters or Gospel readings.
- ii. The Midterm Exam (about 50 min long) will consist of (1) identification and manipulation of word forms; (2) phrases and/or sentences for translation into Latin; (3) sentences or a paragraph for translation into English; and (4) questions on grammar.
- iii. The Final Exam will use the same format as the midterm exam, but it will be longer (time to write it will be about 3 hours).

Gospel Reading

http://www.vatican.va/archive/bible/nova_vulgata/documents/nova-vulgata_novum-testamentum_lt.html

During each class the students will read a few lines of the Gospel of St John (Evangelium Secundum Ioannem), downloaded from the Vatican website (above)

Course Requirements

1. Assignment due dates and late submission policy: Tests will occur as indicated in the lecture schedule below. Two tests will be on the content (including grammar forms) of the Testamentum Secundum Ioannem. Hand-in Homework Assignments: due on appointed dates at the beginning of class. Paper copies are required
2. Missed Exams: If you know in advance that you will not be able to write the midterm or final exam on the scheduled date for a legitimate and documentable reason, please let me know as soon as possible.
3. Attendance: Students should expect to be called upon in class. In light of this, attendance is vital. 10% of your final grade will be determined by your participation in class, and approximately half of that will be directly related to your attendance. You should attend class consistently, arriving in the classroom and prepared for the beginning of the lecture.

General Academic Information

Late Submission Policy.

Please list your policy and how late submissions will affect the student's grade.

Course Attendance

No credit will be given for a course if the student has been absent, for any reason whatever, from one-third or more of the lectures and/or seminars scheduled for the term. Likewise, no credit will be given if term assignments or other assignments are or remain incomplete.

Leave of Absence and Policy for Incompletes

Extensions to an incomplete grade may be granted in extenuating circumstances, but may not exceed 16 weeks following the end of the course. Students who fail to complete course work by the agreed deadline will have a grade assigned which is based on work completed.

Academic Integrity

Acts of academic dishonesty (plagiarism, cheating, etc.) are subject to an appropriate penalty. The grade "F" may be assigned to a student guilty of such acts by the professor of the course in which the infraction occurred. A second offense against academic integrity renders the student liable to automatic dismissal from NTC. Further details are available in the Student Handbook in the Academic Misconduct Policy.

Academic Grievances

Students may appeal grades received; the procedure is outlined in the Student Handbook in the Grade Appeal Policy. For other grievances, students will refer to the Student Grievances Policy also outlined in the Student Handbook.

NOTE: The GPA is computed on the basis of cumulative grade point (letter) values, not percentage values. All courses are included in this calculation except those exceeding degree requirements and/or received as transfer credits from other recognized institutions.

Written Assignments - Style and Format

Newman Theological College requires that all written work be submitted in acceptable academic format and style. Please note the following regulations:

Regulations

Research papers, book reports, article summaries, reflection papers, and essays should be double-spaced, printed on one side only, and submitted on white, 8.5" x 11" paper.

A standard type style, such as Times New Roman, with a 12-point font size, must be used. The instructor will specify the most recent edition of the style manual to be used:

1. Kate Turabian, "A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations" (Chicago: University of Chicago Press).
2. Joseph Gibaldi & William Ahters, eds., "MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers" (New York: Modern Language Association of America).
3. American Psychological Association "Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association" (Washington: APA Publications).

Copies of these standard references may be purchased in the NTC bookstore.

Ignorance of standard form is not considered an acceptable excuse for deviation from required standards of format and style.
